

REPUBLICAN-1907
ALL PORTS LEDGER-1908

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1912.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

WE SAW IT FIRST.
"Boreka!" cried the ground hog.
As his shadow gloomed his path;
The coal man dare-d with joy,
And the ice man fled in wrath.
"Boreka! I have seen it."
Cried the terra firma about.
And the public wailed: "No matter,
Long as some one gets my coal!"

Mrs. Lilly Hicks and children of Ripley, O.
Mr. and Mrs. George Danbar of Hamilton, O.
Jamar, Elmer, Clarence and Henry Danbar and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coudeff of Indianapolis, Ind., were here Thursday in attendance upon the funeral of Mrs. Martha Danbar.

Miss Metcalfe's Will

Should anything happen to me I desire that I should be buried in my aunt, Mrs.
Metcalfe's grave in the cemetery.
I wish my brother, Tom,
Maria Wilcox,
Hervon, the best
of friends.
LUKE METCALFE,
Maysville, Ky.

ONE SHOVELFUL OF THE BEST COAL

Is worth two of the other kind. You can prove it by trying some of our coal. It will cost nothing extra to make the trial. It will really cost you less, for you'll find your bin holding out longer, while you have as much heat or more than you had before.
How many tons shall we send?

MAYSVILLE COAL CO.

Editor Hiram Duley of The Times-Democrat, Flemingburg, was in the city yesterday visiting his daughter, Mrs. Pickett Wood of East Fourth street, and attending the tobacco sales in the East End. He also paid THE LEDGER a pleasant call. Editor Duley will soon round out his thirty-third year as editor and publisher of his sprightly and interesting paper, and it is hoped he may continue many more years in the service doing good and enlightening his constituents.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON

Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help.
I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it." Cardui acts specifically on the weakened womanly organs, strengthening the muscles and nerves, and building them up to health.

It helps to refresh the worn-out nervous system and relieves the effects of overwork, both mental and physical.
Fifty years' successful use fully prove the merit of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.
In every community, there live some who have been benefited by Cardui.
The beneficial effects of this time tested woman's remedy, soon show themselves in many different ways.

with amounts to so small a per cent. on our volume of business that it will require a better mathematician than our house can boast of to figure it. We do it to show our appreciation to the multitude of patrons that make our house head-opinion that some one has lied.

aps he is correct in his conclusion, but even that would be a matter of minor consideration from a public viewpoint if it simply involved differences concerning the proper ingredients of a mint julep, but when it hinges upon the charge of ingratitude and involves the good faith of a man who aspires to the highest office in the gift of the Amerian people, it becomes a serious question in which all the people are interested.

There seems to be no doubt that Colonel HARVEY did his utmost to promote the candidacy of the former Princeton president or at his work was done in good faith and without thought of personal reward. There is no doubt that at a recent conference the New Jersey editor asked the New Jersey Governor considered the support of Harper's claim of any assistance in his campaign for Democratic nomination and was informed that it was considered a handicap.

Later he wrote a letter to Colonel HARVEY which was so worded that the latter might receive it as an apology, and which asked for a disavowal of the personal friendship of the editor.

All of which may be regarded by Governor LEON as justifiable, but which is going to make the average man as an astute way of winning both ends against the middle." As it is in the beginning, the whole affair has been highly unimportant but for that it is indicative of a hitherto unknown in the character of a man who is regarded as a presidential possibility.

The Democrats have kept the faith with the temperance people and passed the County Unit Bill, but the whiskey men's faith in the insincerity of McCRRARY has been fearfully shattered.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

February seventh will be the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of CHARLES DICKENS.
Preparations are being made in all of the larger cities of the country for elaborate celebrations of the centennial of the writer who has entranced so many readers with his stories.

A merchant who thinks only of "the cost" of advertising often persuades himself that by advertising only half as much as usual, he is saving one-half of the expense of advertising.
The same logic would lead him to keep his store open but half the time—thus cutting running expenses in half, and "saving" all that money! The plan of adequate advertising service (for your ads do render a most valuable service to your patrons) is as essential to store success as the plan of keeping the store open every shopping day!

Foolish Philosophy.

Every business is more or less like the life insurance business—not much comes unless you go after it.

If you want to hear that there is no chastity among women, associate with women who are unhappy outcasts because of lack of it.

I was once seated in front of a Paris cafe eating a lunch. A drunken Frenchman who was passing began abusing me in the most violent manner. Finally the drunken man passed on. "Why did he abuse me?" I asked the guide. "Because you are sober," the guide replied.

Why is it that the simplest moral fact cannot be agreed upon? Thousands of men are tricky, to their own injury, because of the false statement, constantly heard, that if a man hopes to succeed he must be a thief; which is as palpably untrue as that a man may get along better with one arm than with two.

On Sunday a woman tries to let the regular dinner hour slip by, thinking her husband won't notice it when he is not doing anything.
But that's the time he is particularly apt to notice it.

Don't let your admirers worry as to whether you can come back; don't go away.

Children always enjoy a joke on their parents.

A "story" often has an insignificant start, and becomes big by reason of inventions added to it. The story that Francis Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays was started by a country town woman named Delia Bacon, who claimed to be related to the noted man of that name and that her "Uncle Francis" wrote "Hamlet," advertised for performance in the town hall.

Actors talk a great deal of their "make-up."
I've never seen a make-up on the stage or elsewhere that wasn't disagreeable and unnatural.

"And your husband gave $50,000 for that old book?"
"Yes," replied Mrs. Cumrox.
"To show how much you care for literature, I suppose?"
"No. To show how little we care for $50,000."

Happily Married

Many Nice Little Things for Wife to Study

By ANNA T. PERKINS

NO WOMAN should permit herself to become too familiar with her husband. Always make him respect you. If he does you a kindness, thank him; if you meet him on the street, speak to him as politely as you would to a stranger. Never tug around after him and give him the impression that you are watching him; a man dislikes to be hanging on a woman's apron strings. Don't expect him to do your housework for you, and don't scold.

Never be anxious for him to tell you where he has been if he is twenty minutes late to his meals; eat your lunch and let him have what is left.

And, sisters, don't cry for every cross word. Just get the forgetting habit; forget to hear.

I read up funny stories, war news, everything in general I know he likes to hear, and he doesn't go to the saloon for news, for I try to keep right up to date. I am not beautiful, nor finely educated, nor a musician, but I am a good cook and can do sewing very neatly. His clothes are always clean, his meals always ready, and I am sure my husband loves me. I have been married eight years.

What do I most admire about him? It is just this: He never talks unkindly of anyone and he never scolds.

I was always a good talker, but I have learned that to keep your mouth shut up tight when you see he is cross is the great secret of happiness.

My husband is very proud and likes to look nice. I do admire neatness in a man.

Now, I have seen that married life surely has its ups and downs. But a woman causes all her own troubles, generally.

Try to save and remember that that money is yours and his together.
Never get the habit of running to him for money. Tell him about how much you want on pay day and make it do. Always be sure you ask for plenty; then if you have any left over put it away.

If you must talk, don't gossip, but talk over business matters or some pleasant thing.

My husband does not like to go out in the evenings, but if I want to go I dress up the children and go. Don't ask if you can; tell him nicely you are going.

Be independent, but don't show off about it; and learn to listen to his ideas. If you disagree with him, do not say so unless he asks for your opinion.

Don't tell him every silly thing, what you buy and what you do, unless he asks you. Learn that the greatest secret of happiness is silence. Flatter him, make him think he is just the thing.

A man is very much like a child. Be firm and kind and always a lady, and he is yours always.

Open Muffler Motor Fiend Is Disliked

By G. H. HAMILTON, President of Federation of American Motorcyclists courtesy and gentlemanly conduct, and it is bending every energy in these directions.

The objects of the Federation of American Motorcyclists are to encourage the use of motorcycles and to promote the general interests of motorcycling; to ascertain, protect and defend the rights of motorcyclists; to facilitate touring; to assist in the good roads movement and to govern and administer the sport of motorcycle racing and other competitions in which motorcycles engage.

We know that as an association we can "promote the general interests of motorcycling" only through law observance, courtesy and a realization of the rights of others. These ends we are striving to attain.

The motorcycle as a vehicle has made a place for itself in pleasure as well as business. It has come to stay. But, if we have our way, it will be respected and hold a dignified as well as a useful position in this motor driven age.

I dislike the open muffler "fiend" cordially—and so does the Federation of American Motorcyclists. I believe there is only one place for speeding and that is on a carefully constructed race track.

There the rider alone takes chances. And through the regulation, restriction and supervision of the Federation of American Motorcyclists these are reduced to a minimum.

Present Order of Society Not Blamed

By W. SMYTHE

In my opinion it is a mistake to attribute crimes to "the present order of society." In what way would education remedy the evil? A man who commits murder in cold blood is a murderer at heart and the only possible benefit he might have derived from thorough education would be cognition of the fact that if he must kill it is safer to do it in a clandestine manner and not on the king's highway.

A bulldog is a bulldog and should not be tantalized. The thoroughbred is not one bit more to be trusted than the vagrant.
It runs in the family. The human family consists of every conceivable nature. Two boys born in a good atmosphere and bred amid the best surroundings enter college with two widely different characteristics and will so leave it, even if you ram education into them at a pound a minute.

A writer asserts that educated people, brought up in a fortunate environment, do not commit murders which call for capital punishment.
If that is true, then we are an uneducated family, for such crimes are executed all around us and by all classes.

The most deplorable fact is that our laws, which apply to all, are not applied to the impetuous collegian as to the dross of the majority.

TESTIMONIAL

Presented to Manager Robert E. Lee of the Palace Hotel By Drummers

Sunday's Enquirer

To show their appreciation of courtesies covering a period of years the members of Ohio Division Travelers' Protective Association last evening presented to Robert E. Lee, Manager of the Palace Hotel, a handsome mission cellophane well stocked with the various kinds of liquors, together with a cut glass decanter, glasses, cigar jar, &c.

The presentation speech was made by former National President E. W. Doutham, who outlined to Mr. Lee the many reasons why the "knights of the grip" desired to so remember him.

Mr. Lee responded when he had sufficiently recovered from his surprise and in a brief address thanked the members for their remembrance. He then ordered an elaborate buffet lunch and the remainder of the evening was spent socially.

THE ONLY WAY

Many Maysville Citizens Have Discovered It

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood often lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth of age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness makes life a burden.

There is one remedy that has won fame for its action on sick kidneys and is recommended by thousands.

Read this proof:
Mrs. John T. Wallingford, 108 Commerce street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with great benefit, and it gives me pleasure to corroborate the testimonials given for publication in their praise some years ago."

"Doan's Kidney Pills" afforded me great relief and I have no hesitation in again recommending them."

ROBBERS LEAVE MEN IN ADAM'S GARB

Strip Bowling Alley Patrons of Clothes in Washroom After Taking Valuables.

Chicago.—The last word in ingenious robbery is to rob and disrobe the victim in a washroom and then leave him shivering in his Adam-like garb, trusting to his natural modesty to prevent him from breaking forth in hot pursuit.

This was tried so successfully a few nights ago that two men—one a detective and the possessor of two revolvers—shivered and shrank up against a wall of a little washroom in Bensinger's bowling alley.

There was one feature of the affair that made it possible for the robbers to escape. It was ladies' night at the bowling alley. The two victims of the robbers peeped from their uncomfortable quarters at the crowd of women at the other end of the alleys, then at their own forms in the mirror.

That was enough. Thomas Fay of 4530 Clifton avenue and James Devury, a Pinkerton detective, were the victims.

Two negroes entered the washroom just as Fay was removing from his face the perspiration acquired in an exciting game. A revolver was thrust to his head and he was compelled to give up a watch and the contents of his pockets—$2.

Then, to guarantee a safe departure, the robbers removed Fay's clothes, also at the point of a revolver. Just then Devury entered and saw Fay, apparently preparing for a cold dry bath. The smile froze on his lips, however, as a revolver was pushed against his own breast. His pockets were emptied.

The two victims shivered and shouted until a pin boy finally came to their relief, but the hold-up men had had time to get miles away.

BULLETS MERELY GOAD BULL

Fueltide From Rifles Fails to Kill Animal Purchased by Butchers and Heavier Arms Used.

Muncie, Ind.—A bull that apparently carries no more for bullets than it does for bee stings and that fairly eats the leaden pellets when they are fired into it for the purpose of converting it into beef, is the worry of a local firm of butchers. The animal, which is savage, is owned by J. M. Hartley, six miles north of here, and Hartley sold it to the butchers. For several days the bull has successfully resisted the efforts of eight men to kill it.

The first attempt to kill the animal was made recently when three employees of the butchering establishment, all heavily armed with rifles, went to the Hartley farm and began a bombardment. After they had fired a number of shots into the animal's head with no effect except to make it angry and paw the earth, the butchers became discouraged and came back to town for reinforcements. The following day two other butchers, armed with larger bore rifles, went to the farm and fired a dozen bullets into the bull. These seemed to annoy the animal somewhat, for it bellowed and ran to the rail fence where the "hunters" were sitting, causing them to make a hasty getaway. An express rifle will be used on the animal.
